Immigration Detention Population from 1990 to 28 February 2013

The number of people in immigration detention month to month continues to fluctuate, predominantly due to the changing pattern of irregular maritime arrivals. The number of irregular maritime arrivals in December 2012 and January 2013 were down compared to the preceding 11 months. Arrivals in February 2013 were higher than January 2013.

People in Immigration Detention by Arrival Type

The number of people in immigration detention who arrived unlawfully by air or boat as at 28 February 2013 was 7602. This represents about 96% of the total immigration detention population.

There were also 350 people (about 4% of the total immigration population) who arrived in Australia lawfully and were subsequently taken into immigration detention for either overstaying or breaching their visa conditions, resulting in visa cancellations.

Children in Immigration Detention

As at 28 February 2013 there were 1062 children (aged under 18 years) in immigration detention facilities and alternative places of detention.

The increase in the number of children in detention facilities in November and December 2012 was due to a rapid increase in irregular maritime arrivals, from October to November 2012. This number has since reduced as children complete mandatory processing and are transferred into the community.

The number of children approved to live in the community under a residence determination has been maintained at a high level. This reflects the Government's policy of placing children in the community as soon as possible after the completion of mandatory checks.

As at 28 February 2013, 1062 children remain in immigration detention while undergoing initial processing. The majority of these children arrived on or after 1 November 2012. 946 children were approved under residence determination for community placement. In addition no children had been granted a bridging visa in February 2013.
